Remembrance Day Parade

In preparation for Remembrance Day we were visited by serving members of the Royal Navy. One of our parents, Mr Reece, who is based at RNAS Culdrose, came into school with two colleagues to teach the children about forming squadrons and how to march.

The children thoroughly enjoyed this exercise and we would like to thank Mr Reece and his colleagues for their time.

Rights Respecting Schools Award Level 2

On Tuesday 14th October, two representatives from UNICEF visited our school to assess our work as Cornwall's first "Rights Respecting" School with a mind to awarding us the Level 2 Award, the highest possible award.

The assessors were very impressed with our school, especially the attitudes and manners of our wonderful children. They have gone away to write their report and make their decision. This will be shared with you all as soon as we hear!

Miss Huddleston would like to thank the Rights Respecting Monitors, School Council, staff, governors and parents for their support and hard work.

School Crossing Patrol

Mr Bosanko our school crossing patrol, is currently unwell.
The school will endeavour to cover the crossing with two members of staff.

Get well soon Mr Bosanko!
